

UNL Indigenous Youth Food Sovereignty Program Field Trip Itinerary
Friday, December 6, 2024

Purpose: Attend a talk and lunch with Dr. Robin Wall Kimmerer, author of Braiding Sweetgrass.

Schedule:

- 8:00 AM: Meet in parking lot at Plant Sciences Hall, 1875 N 38th St, Lincoln, NE 68503 for departure.
- 8:15 AM: Depart Lincoln for Omaha.
- 9:30 AM: Arrive at the Kiewit Luminarium, 345 Riverfront Dr, Omaha, NE 68102
- 10:00 AM – 11:30 AM: Presentation and discussion with Dr. Kimmerer.
- 11:30 AM – 1:00 PM: Lunch and exploring second floor of Luminarium
- 1:00 PM – 1:15 PM: Depart Omaha.
- 2:15 – 2:30 PM: Return to parking lot at Plant Sciences Hall, 1875 N 38th St, Lincoln, NE 68503 for pick up.

Important Notes for Students:

- Transportation will be provided via University van.
- Bring any personal items you may need (e.g., notebook, pen, water bottle).
- Please dress appropriately for the weather and event.
- Be respectful and engaged during the event—it's a unique learning opportunity!

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to Ted Hibbeler and Molly Phemister.

Day of Contact Information

Molly Phemister

Cell: 402-417-6424